

Reflect

Jesus's resurrection was first made known to the women—the same ones who funded His ministry and followed Him from the beginning to the end. Why do you think that He revealed His resurrection to the women first? How is this significant to you as a woman who follows Jesus today?

Based on what you've learned in the podcast, who were these women who followed Jesus? What does the Bible tell us about them?

Why do you think the disciples did not believe Mary Magdalene when they first told them that Jesus was alive?

When Jesus addressed His disciples after His resurrection, He told them to: "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation" (Mark 16:15). In your own life, how have you shared the gospel? If you can't think of a time, what opportunities might you have to share this good news with the people in your life?

Pray

God, thank You for the gift of your Son, Jesus. Thank You that, though I don't deserve it, my guilt and my sin is wiped clean because of the ultimate sacrifice of Jesus. I pray, God, that You would help me to steward this gift of new life each and every day—whether by living with gratitude and joy, sharing the good news, or making choices that reflect Jesus best. May the people I interact with every day get to know You better because they know me. Thank You, Father.

More to Explore

During this Lenten and Easter season, be wowed by the wild and wonderful love of Jesus! When you read A Joyful Easter: 7 Easter Devotions from God Hears Her, you'll be invited to pause and reflect on who our Savior is, what He did for us through the cross, the importance of His resurrection, and how He desires a personal relationship not just during this time of year, but every day.

SCAN THE QR CODE TO START READING

